

A 74-key alphanumeric keyboard is being sold by Digitran for $99.95 in 100-lot quantities. The company normally produces custom keyboards for OEMs, and the KS99 is its first standard model. It is ASCII-encoded and has automatic repeat, N-key rollover, and numeric, function and cursor keypads. The Digitran Company, 855 South Arroyo Parkway, Pasadena, CA 91105.

A 74-key alphanumeric keypad from Digitran

---

InfoWorld is unable to test every product announced in this section. All claims attributed to the product have been made by manufacturers or by firms marketing the products.